SAIGON (AP) — Ten American soldiers were killed and 31 wounded when North Vietnamese forces tried to overrun a jungle firebase midway between the city and the A Shau Valley before dawn today, the U.S. Command said.

At least 10 of the enemy also died in the two-hour fight. The North Vietnamese, screened by mortar fire and small arms, rocket grenades and machine charges, repeatedly assaulted the base in attempts to break through the perimeter.

Spokesmen at Da Nang said the enemy did not get into the base, known as Firebase Grande, but the Americans, fighting in thick jungle canopy and darkness without benefit of air support, lowered their artillery to fire directly at the attackers. They also called in artillery from a nearby firebase.

The U.S. casualties were the heaviest for American forces in any single ground action since Feb. 20 when 14 were killed and 29 wounded in an ambush south of Da Nang.

Thursday nine Americans were killed and one wounded when an enemy mine destroyed an American Division armored personnel carrier south of Da Nang.

In Saigon, terrorists bombed a house occupied by American civilians working under contract for the U.S. Navy. The explosion shattered windows but no casualties were reported. Earlier a terrorist bomb at another building injured five Vietnamese.

Two more American helicopters were shot down Thursday, but spokesmen said there were no casualties.

The crashes brought to 3,476 the number of helicopters reported lost in the Vietnam war since Jan. 1, 1961.

President Nguyen Van Thieu announced he would sign into law on March 26 the land reform bill providing free distribution of land to tenant farmers. The bill was approved by the national Assembly Monday after the Senate restored most of Thieu's original proposals which the House had amended.

New Drive Launched by Cong in Laos

By GEORGE ESPER Associated Press Writer

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — North Vietnamese forces launched a new drive today south of the Plain of Jars, seized three Laotian government positions, and drove to within one mile of Gen. Vang Pao's U.S.-supported base at Long Cheng.

Laotian air force T28 bombers made 15 strikes one mile off the eastern end of the Long Cheng airfield after reconnaissance detected a North Vietnamese force of undetermined size moving toward the headquarters of Vang Pao's army of 7,000 Meo tribesmen, which is trained and advised by about a dozen American Army and CIA personnel.

The Laotian Military Command reported earlier today that at least 20 government troops have been killed and more than 100 wounded in the North Vietnamese advance this week.

Col. Thongphanh Knoksy, the Defense Ministry spokesman, also reported government forces had been driven from their last two outposts in Sam Neua Province north of the Plain of Jars. He said this was "quite serious."

Thongphanh denied previous reports that the North Vietnamese and Pathet Lao had captured the U.S.-supported supply base at Sam Thong, 15 miles southwest of the Plain of Jars and 90 miles north of Vientiane, but all other reports indicated there were no government troops inside the town.

The colonel said the North Vietnamese controlled some high ground overlooking the Sam Thong airstrip and were preventing any aircraft from landing. But he insisted Sam Thong was still in government hands.

The U.S. Command in Saigon announced that a U.S. Air Force F100 fighter-bomber crashed in the lower panhandle of Laos Thursday, but the two crewmen were rescued. The cause of the crash is not known, a spokesman said.

It was the sixth American warplane reported lost over Laos since the United States began reporting such losses "10 days" ago.

Headquarters said U.S. planes continued to fly bombing raids along the Ho Chi Minh trail in Laos and in support of Royal Laotian forces Thursday.

UA Students Warned About Disturbances

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Dr. David W. Mullins, president of the University of Arkansas, says persons unwilling to abide by procedures for expressing grievances "may find themselves suspended or dismissed."

Mullins made the statement in Thursday's edition of The Traveler, the student newspaper.

"Furthermore, violators of the law, whether students or not, are subject to arrest," Mullins said.

About 50 Negro students gathered in Mullins' office earlier this month to discuss grievances with Mullins.

Mullins said Thursday that when an individual or small group wished "to seek an audience with the president or any other official they should call the office and make an appointment."

"When a large delegation desires to meet with university officials, arrangements should be made in advance for appropriate place and time, giving general indication of the matters to be discussed," Mullins said. "This assures that adequate housing for the meeting will be available and that those persons who possess certain information may be present in order to contribute to a fruitful discussion."

Thinks Firm Will Release Records

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Securities Commissioner William F. Sherman said Thursday he believed La-Co Inc. of Little Rock would voluntarily release records he wants for an investigation of possible violations of Arkansas securities laws.

Sherman made the statement after talking with attorneys for La-Co.

Sherman revealed Wednesday that the Securities Department had begun an investigation of La-Co's activities and that he had subpoenaed the firm's books and records. He also said Wednesday that Jack F. Files of North Little Rock, an attorney for the firm, had refused to release the books and records until Harlan Lane, board chairman and chief executive officer of La-Co, had returned to the state.

El Dorado Must Ban Identification

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The U.S. 8th Circuit Court of Appeals at St. Louis says the El Dorado School District must eliminate the racial identification of five elementary schools, but does not make any suggestions on how to accomplish the objective.

The case was returned to U.S. District Court Judge Orin Harris of El Dorado with instructions for the district "to eliminate the last vestiges of racial identification."

The appellate court said four of the 11 elementary schools are "completely black" and that one predominantly white elementary school was racially identifiable with seven Negro students and 374 whites.

Carswell Foes Seek to Keep Fight Alive

By R.L. SCHWARTZ M Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Drifted by the other side's refusal to come out and fight, Senate opponents of Supreme Court nominee G. Harrold Carswell are probing a broad front seeking a way to keep their case alive.

What one Carswell opponent described as a carefully planned series of moves climaxed Thursday in just the kind of reaction hoped for—a slashing attack by a Southern senator on two influential federal judges who refused to openly back the nominee.

The attack by Democrat Russell B. Long of Louisiana was a departure from the Nixon administration's strategy of making a case, then retreating to the sidelines to let the opposition swing at this air.

A charge that Carswell failed to reveal the refusal of federal appeals Judge Elbert P. Tuttle to testify in his behalf was met with silence after a brief initial flurry of denials that it meant anything.

Silence also was used to counter a speech by Sen. Alan Cranston, D-Calif., who accused Carswell of violations of the Canons of Judicial Ethics by allegedly showing hostility to civil rights lawyers appearing before him when he was a federal district judge in Tallahassee, Fla.

But Thursday the opposition mounted its broadest attack in five days of debate. It included: —A two-hour speech by Sen. Edward Brooke, R-Mass., the Senate's only Negro, who said: "I have searched, and I have searched, and I have searched in vain and found no utterances public or private, no deeds public or private" to indicate Carswell had altered the white supremacy views he voiced as a candidate for the Georgia Legislature 22 years ago.

—A declaration by Sen. Mike Gravel, D-Alaska, he will vote against Carswell "because of his civil rights record, because of his misuse of judicial power, and because of his nonexistent judicial stature."

—A telegram from eight members of the American Bar Association to ABA President Bernard Segal and Lawrence E. Walsh, chairman of the ABA's judiciary committee, calling for a new look at the Carswell nomination.

The telegram was signed by Francis T. P. Plimpton, president of the New York City Bar Association and the deans of the Harvard, Yale, University of Pennsylvania and UCLA law schools.

—An effort by the opposition to see that the widest possible circulation was given to the reluctance of both Tuttle and Judge John Minor Wisdom to endorse Carswell, even though they are fellow members of the 5th Court of Appeals.

It was this development that brought Long to the Senate floor to call Tuttle "a sweet old thing" and label Wisdom, a Republican and fellow Louisianian, a "jealous, frustrated and ambitious man" who wanted the Supreme Court nomination himself.

Wisdom reacted Thursday night to Long's attack, calling the charges ridiculous.

"If he knew what he was talking about, he would realize that I couldn't be hoping for that job because it's a well-known fact that I don't fit in with Atty. Gen. John Mitchell's Southern strategy," Wisdom said in San Francisco.

Fined for Air Pollution

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The North Little Rock Tin Compress Co. was fined $100 Thursday for violation of state air pollution control regulations. Municipal Judge Milton McLees levied the fine.

Ladd Davies, director of the Pollution Control Commission, said this was the first time pollution charges had been filed against a firm by the commission.

Water Works Group Must Answer Suit

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Little Rock Water Works Commission has been ordered to answer within 10 days a suit that seeks reinstatement of the striking waterworks employees.

U.S. District Court Judge J. Smith Henley issued the order Thursday.

Members of the waterworks union went on strike Feb. 18 to protest the firing of W. H. Looney, chapter chairman. The union had said it would go on strike Feb. 23 to support its demands for recognition and payroll deduction of union dues, among other things.

The waterworks has indicated that it would not reinstate all striking employees.

sharpest monthly increase in nearly a year, because hospital room rates advanced faster than in recent months," the bureau said.

"Prices of beef, pork and fresh fruits and vegetables were up more than usual in February and were responsible for much of the rise in food prices overall," it said.

Dairy products, which usually drop in February, went up, particularly cheese and fresh milk.

There were substantial increases in prices for cigarettes, alcoholic beverages, household supplies and furnishings, the bureau said.

The bureau also reported that average weekly earnings of some 45 million rank and file workers rose $1.06 in February to $117.18. This was $7.07, or 6.4 per cent, above the year earlier.

But price increases in the past year more than wiped out all of the wage gains.

Three other persons were arrested in Pittsburgh following a clash between police and 20 young persons during a court hearing for eight persons arrested during an earlier antidraft demonstration. The battle broke out when one of the defendants refused to face the judge for sentencing.

Among the scattered incidents of vandalism and harassment were a bomb scare at a draft board during a demonstration by 60 persons in St. Louis; the painting of peace symbols on a Columbia, Mo., federal building during a protest by 30 persons; and the ransacking of the Lakewood, Colo., draft board.

State Department announced Thursday the United States will recognize the regime of Chen Heng, leader of the Cambodian National Assembly.

Although most attention has been centered on the infiltration routes from North to South Vietnam through Laos, use of Sihanoukville as an entry port for supplies destined for the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong long has been a matter of deep concern to U.S. officials.

Apparently with the connivance of Cambodian officials of the Sihanouk regime, weapons and ammunition were landed, mostly from Communist Chinese and Russian ships, at Sihanoukville under the guise of aid intended for the Cambodian army.

If the new leadership in Cambodia refuses to be a party to such operations, American officials anticipate, this source of help for the Vietnamese enemy may also be severed.

Some U.S. military authorities are not ready to cheer yet about developments in Cambodia. They are not entirely convinced that Sihanouk may not make a comeback.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer NEW YORK (AP)—Dr. Seuss may be the author of books for children, but the television adaptation of his words and drawings, Thursday night's "Horton Hears a Who" on CBS, probably was most appreciated by the adult viewers.

The half-hour special was a colorful and faithful animation of the distinctive Seuss style but lacked some warmth. Horton was a conscientious little elephant who risked his life and reputation trying to save a speck of dust because he heard a voice from within it calling for help.

As it turned out, the speck of dust contained a whole village of tiny residents of Who-ville. They were tossed by wind, carried off by a bird and chased by some ape-like villains. Horton's determination to save Who-ville led to all sorts of malicious stories being circulated through his jungle, including one rumor that, since he talked to a speck of dust, that he had flipped his lid.

This illustrated that "nobody believes anything exists outside of his own little world." Horton made his point. The accompanying

Abortion Bill Quickly Killed in New York

By LOUISE COOK
Associated Press Writer
Three years ago, the New York State Assembly Codes Committee took only 90 minutes to kill an attempt to reform the state's 19th century abortion law.

Two days ago, the state Senate, considered the more conservative of the two houses, passed and sent to the Assembly a bill that not only reforms the law but repeals all restrictions on abortions performed by licensed doctors.

The Assembly will consider the bill next week and chances of passage are considered good. Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller is on record as favoring abortion reform, although he has not endorsed this particular bill.

An Associated Press survey of the 50 states and Washington, D.C. disclosed that in more than half the states it is still impossible for a woman to get an abortion unless her life is threatened.

But the change in climate in New York is typical of much of the country, with relaxed moral standards and strong pressure from women's groups, doctors and social workers combining to make abortion reform if not politically popular, at least not politically suicidal.

There has been more reform since 1967—when Colorado became the first state to liberalize its abortion law—than in the century before that.

"The progress that's been made... is fantastic," said Dr. Alan Guttmacher, head of the Planned Parenthood World Population Association. "Nobody could have dreamed this degree of progress. We're now more concerned with the quality of population than the quantity."

Since 1967, 11 states have followed Colorado's lead, adopting laws that permit abortion if the mother's mental or physical health is threatened; if the pregnancy results from rape or incest, or if there is a substantial chance the baby will be born deformed.

All require that abortions be performed by licensed physicians and some require approval by a hospital board. Most have residency requirements. And, despite fears, none has become an "abortion capital."

There still are 33 states that prohibit all abortion except to save the mother's life. But attempts at reform are pending in 10 of these states, including New York. In a 34th state, Wisconsin, a U.S. District Court ruled earlier this month that the ban on abortion was unconstitutional. The court said, "We hold that a woman's right to refuse to carry an embryo during the early stages of pregnancy may not be invaded by the state."

Similar court challenges exist in other states.

But many areas, including Washington, D.C., are faced with the possibility that should court challenges of old abortion laws be upheld, they will be left with no statute at all on termination of pregnancy. The Washington, D.C., law was overturned by a district judge last November and an appeal is pending.

The State of Washington is putting the issue to the voters. On the ballot this November will be a referendum repealing a 1909 law making it a felony to perform an abortion other than to save the life of the mother.

The Washington referendum would allow abortion providing it is performed within the first 16 weeks of pregnancy and that the woman has been a state resident for 90 days. If the woman is under 18, her parents' consent would be required and if she is married and living with her husband, his permission would be needed.

The remaining three states—Hawaii, Pennsylvania and New Hampshire—have widely varying statutes.

Early this month, a law took effect in Hawaii that repealed a century-old statute and allows abortion providing it is performed by a qualified physician or osteopath in a licensed hospital and providing the fetus is nonviable—incapable of living outside the mother's body. There is a 90-day residency requirement.

Pennsylvania, where the law has remained essentially unchanged since 1960, provides penalties for anyone who "unlawfully administers to any woman pregnant or quick with child" a device or drug to cause a miscarriage. The term unlawfully never has been defined, however, and abortions generally are performed on the Colorado standard.

Because of a printer's error late in the 19th century, the New Hampshire law allows abortions only after the fifth month of pregnancy—exactly the opposite of what the legislators intended. Attempts to update the law were defeated by the 1969 Legislature.

Many reformers would like to see abortion completely removed from the criminal code and left strictly a medical matter—like an appendectomy for example.

HOPE (AND) STAGE, Planned by Office Engagement Announced

MISS KATHLEEN ELLEN RAHTZ

The engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Kathleen Ellen Rahtz to Tony C. Smith is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin J. Rahtz of Fayetteville. The future bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman W. Smith of Hope. The bride-elect was graduated from Fayetteville High School, and is now a junior at the University of Arkansas where she is majoring in music education.

She is a member of Delta Gamma sorority and Sigma Alpha Epsilon. Her fiancé, a graduate of Hope High School, is a senior at the University where he will graduate with a Bachelor of Music with honors in August. Mr. Smith is president of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, honorary fraternity for men. The wedding will be an event of May 30th at St. John's Lutheran Church in Fayetteville.

thought it would set a trend, he replied, "I would expect that."

In Colorado, Democratic State Rep. Richard Lamm, sponsor of the original abortion reform measure, said recently, "I feel the law isn't working because it isn't strong enough."

In 1968, Maryland liberalized its law to conform with the Colorado standard. This week, the House of Delegates approved a bill to repeal all abortion laws.

Few states keep statistics on abortions, legal or illegal. Those that do report there has been an increase in legal abortions after a liberalization of the law, but there has been no stampede for termination of pregnancy.

Arkansas, which liberalized its law last August, has not compiled statistics yet. But Dr. Byron Hawks, associate professor of obstetrics and gynecology at the University of Arkansas Medical Center in Little Rock, said that since liberalization no more than 12 abortions had been performed that could not have been performed under the old law.

The prefix "giga" means "multiplied by one billion."

$4.6 Million Suit Against Holiday Inns

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Marshall L. Rachel of Benton, majority stockholder in R. M. Electric Co. and Helgin Electric Co. of Benton, filed a $4.6 million damage suit Thursday in U.S. District Court here against Holiday Inns of America Inc. and several Mississippi firms.

The suit alleges that Holiday Inns and the firms in Columbus, Miss., conspired to drive Rachel and his electrical contracting firms out of business.

Rachel said the two companies were electrical subcontractors for the construction of 38 Holiday Inn motels in several cities prior to May 1, 1967. The suit says that 90 per cent of the $1.6 million grossed by the two companies in 1966 was from the electrical contracting for Holiday Inns.

Nothing. Helen: He isn't much good, but he's all I've got and at my age, it's doubtful, if I could replace him.

The problem is, I only have him half the time. He has another woman friend too and he isn't about to marry either of us. One week he spends with me, the next with her.

He's a braggart and an oaf, but sometimes I love him in spite of myself. However, this romance is going nowhere. Should I settle for what he offers or—???

Dear ???: If you think half an oaf is better than none—Settle. Personally, I'd prefer ????

Dear Helen: My husband is a gale executive. The company sends him to conferences at least twice a year, and on business trips every week. Once only, during the year, are wives invited, and that's to the annual convention. At other times, their presence is discouraged. "They might be a distraction."

So what do we little stay-at-homes do? We mend and clean and iron that special shirt at a moment's notice when our men are suddenly called away. We listen to their tales of glory, and yearn over all those wonderful places they visit, while cheering them on for their accomplishments. We shop for the absolutely terrific suit that will knock the opposition dead, even though our own coats are five years old. And we tuck the kids in bed at night, telling them Daddy will be home soon.

Pass 3NT	Pass 3NT	Pass 3NT	Pass 3NT
Opening lead—♥Q

Today's hand is taken from an article by Don von Elaner in "Popular Bridge." His hero, Jake Winkman, is giving an advanced lesson in dummy play, so cover up the East and West hands and see how you would do. The first trick is a lead from the first hand and you want your hand just in case something goes wrong with the diamonds. You play the ace of diamonds at trick two and continue with the queen. West throws away the three of clubs and your easy game is in jeopardy.

The game is rubber bridge and you want to go all out for your contract. Plan your campaign.

You want to come to nine tricks. You can count four diamonds and two hearts. Can you get any tricks in spades? Possibly. If your opponents would sit back and let you develop that suit, but they aren't likely to be that friendly. You abandon all plans for a spade trick. Can you get a third heart trick? Not in the 70s!

Then you need three club tricks. Can you get them? Easy, provided East has the king of clubs and you can lead clubs twice from dummy. Now your plans should be complete.

Overtake the queen of diamonds with dummy's king! Lead a club and finesse! It works!

Lead your five of diamonds to dummy's nine. East takes his jack and returns a heart. You are back in dummy. Cash the last two diamonds and lead a club for a second finesse. You have your nine tricks!

Q—The bidding has been:

West North East South
1♥ Pass Pass 1♠
Pass 1♠ Pass 2NT
Pass 2NT Pass 3NT

You, South, hold:
♠AK98 ♥42 ♦A52 ♣AJ73
What do you do now?
A—Bid two spades. There is some slight chance that your partner will be able to move to game, but if he can't make two spades then your opponents can surely make some contract of their own.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Instead of passing East has raised his partner's one heart to two. What do you do under these circumstances?

SHOVER SPRINGS MISSIONARY BAPTIST CHURCH

Get The Light From GOD'S LIGHTHOUSE

GUIDE YOU TO HIS CHURCH

He Always Heals

A robust man you are today, Full of vigor, vitality and vim; But through some common stroke of fate, Now, you must depend only on Him. Yet, when your stretcher rolls into your ward, The great physicians will do their best; Their skills and tools will work in rhyme, But to really heal, "It Takes God Every Time." Ancient man believed demons and unclean spirits caused our ills and they, along with us, believe that only a great and good power can drive out these evil things. Our hats are off to physicians, surgeons, nurses and all the wonderful healing fraternity. They are God's assistants, but they would be the first to join the Psalmist of old in saying, that it is God, "who healeth all my diseases." We must have God. We might find Him in the little church on the corner. Have you tried? To really Heal, It Takes God Every Time.

You In The Church
The Church In You
— form a combination for good. Every man, woman and child needs the influence of the church. So, come let us go into the house of the Lord. Let us support her program of service to humanity, be a faithful worker, a daily bible reader and attend services regularly.

TRUST ONLY IN HIM

If your church is to be a going concern, it must have church-going members. Sponsors listed below urge you to attend services this week.

Marquette Shows Pete How to Win

By KEN NAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — "We know our smoking," said Coach St. John's of Marquette, "but we know how to win." Pete Maravich, the best on the team, led Marquette to a 101-79 victory Thursday night in the semifinals of the 33rd National Invitation Tournament.

St. John's of New York earlier advanced to the finals with a heart-thumping 80-59 victory over Army before 19,500 hysterical fans at Madison Square Garden.

"Any man can be stopped," said McGuire after Marquette used a variety of defenses to hold Maravich to only 20 points, almost 27 below his game average. "Where is he gonna go with men in front of him and behind him?"

"Teams know we're going to come out smoking," said McGuire. "They know we're going to be on their chest and belly to belly from the start."

There were times Marquette had three men draped over the Pistol... and sometimes some combinations ate him up. Maravich also admitted that a sore left ankle hindered his lateral movement and feared outside jump shot.

"I come down on my left foot with the jump, and I wasn't able to get it off as often in the second half," said Maravich, who only took four shots in that stanza. "But don't get the idea I'm apologizing. I'm not."

"I don't feel bad for myself. I've had my share of good games. But... I wanted to win the tournament championship for my father (LSU Coach Press Maravich). That's all down the drain now."

Maravich was held to 20 points only two other times this season—once during the regular season by Tennessee and last Sunday by Georgetown in their opening NIT game.

Press Maravich took the loss philosophically.

"I'd rather lose playing our wide-open scoring style than playing ball control. Pete had a bad game, but I don't feel sorry for him. Not for all the great games he's played for me."

Dean Meminger, Marquette's fleet guard, scored a sub-par 16 points, but helped guard Maravich and kept the offense in high gear most of the night with his bullet passes.

Sophomore Rich Lyons dropped in two foul shots with one second left in the opener as St. John's stole the game from Army's game Cadets.

"What can you say about Lyons?" exulted St. John's Coach Lou Carnesecca. "Talk about pressure! It was all there. A sophomore with all the pressure in the world... and he makes the big shots."

"He's been in situations like that before. Blew them and went home and cried. But... tonight he's a pretty happy kid."

Nodouble Will Try Again on West Coast

Nodouble, the race horse known as the Arkansas Traveler, is back on the east coast this week trying to win another $100,000 stakes.

The 5-year-old, topweighted at 127 pounds, looms as the probable choice of a field of nine in the $123,800 Gulfstream Park Handicap Saturday at the Florida track.

Nodouble, who gained his nickname because his owner Gene Goff is from Arkansas and because of his numerous transcontinental trips to run in big stakes, is expected to make amends for being beaten in the Santa Anita Handicap in his last outing.

The chief opposition to Nodouble winning the 1 1/4 mile Gulfstream for the second straight year is expected to come from Snow Sporting, winner of the Charles H. Strub Stakes, and Twogundam, impressive winner of the Donn Handicap.

Lee Won the Battle, Carlos Did Well Too

By TOM SALADINO
Associated Press Sports Writer
Lee May won the battle of the brothers but Carlos didn't do too bad. His Chicago White Sox won the war.

Older brother Lee, who has claimed White Sox pitching for eight hits in nine trips this spring, landed three hits, including two doubles and three runs batted in Thursday but his Cincinnati Reds lost to the White Sox 7-3 at Sarasota, Fla., in an exhibition contest.

However, Carlos, 21, who missed over sixty games last year when he lost part of his right thumb in a freak accident while serving a two-week military hitch last summer, belted a double and a single, driving in the first two Chicago runs.

Carlos, a left-handed hitter but righty thrower, is making a miraculous comeback after his career was believed ended. In 100 games last year he batted .281, crashing 18 homers and 62 RBI before the accident. Brother Lee, 27, had a .218 mark with 38 homers and 170 RBI last year.

At Mesa, Ariz., tragedy struck the Cleveland Indians when outfielder Ken Harrelson broke a bone in his lower right leg. An Indian spokesman said he would be out at least two months and possibly the entire season.

Harrelson's injury occurred while he was sliding into second base on a fourth inning force out against Oakland.

"I knew right away it was bad," said the 28-year-old Harrelson, who was obtained from Boston by Cleveland in April of last year. "I heard it snap and I saw my foot pointing in the opposite direction."

The A's won the game 9-0 behind the three-hit pitching of Juan Pizarro and Robert Rodriguez.

Ken McMullen cracked a three-run homer and started a triple play in Washington's 8-4 triumph over the New York Yankees, snapping the Yanks' six-game winning string. Frank Howard, the Senators' mammoth slugger, made his spring debut, slapping a single in three trips to the plate.

Hank Aaron blasted his sixth homer of the spring and Pat Jarvis scattered three hits over six innings in Atlanta's 2-0 decision over the New York Mets.

St. Louis Cardinals' ace right-hander Bob Gibson went seven innings, slitting the Minnesota Twins to three hits and Richie Allen cracked a homer—his second in two days—in the Cards' 3-1 triumph.

Willie Crawford's two-run 10th inning homer gave Los Angeles its 5-3 victory over Detroit. All the Tigers' runs came on solo homers by Willie Horton and rookies Elliott Maddox and Ken Szotkiewicz.

Another rookie, Greg Luzinski, slapped a run-scoring ninth-inning double, giving the Philadelphia Phillies a 6-5 victory over Houston. The Astros got homers from John Edwards and Joe Pepitone while Tony Taylor slammed one for the Phils.

Pittsburgh rode the longball slugging of Gene Clines, Ron Dalys, Bob Robertson and Chuck Coggins—each belting homers—in a 10-4 beating of the Boston Red Sox. Carl Yastrzemski, Don Pavletich and Don Lock smacked homers for the Sox.

Al Ferrara boomed a two-run homer helping San Diego to a 5-1 triumph over California.

Jimmie Hall homered in the Chicago Cubs' 6-4 decision over Seattle as Cubs' ace Ferguson Jenkins went the first five innings, allowing one run.

Ouachita Girls Advance in Tournament

AMARILLO, Tex. (AP) — Defending champion Wayland Baptist and scrappy John F. Kennedy of Nebraska collide tonight in the feature second round battle of the Women's National Invitation Basketball Tournament.

The Wayland Baptist Flying Queens drilled Kansas State University 61-43 Thursday while Kennedy nipped Ranger, Tex., Junior College 47-46.

In other games Thursday, Ouachita Baptist of Arkadelphia, Ark., blasted Temple, Tex., Junior College 71-46 and Midwestern of Iowa crashed West Texas State University 73-46.

Ouachita and Midwestern meet in the other championship bracket game tonight.

In the loser's bracket, Kansas State and Ranger meet while West Texas engages Temple.

UCLA Coach John Wooden, not over-enthusiased with his club's offensive game against the amazin' Aggies, also had lots of praise for Jacksonville which squeezed past outmanned and foul-plagued St. Bonaventure 91-83 in the other semifinal.

"I would think it would be our speed against their height," Wooden said. "I think we're much quicker but they have those big boys."

One of those boys he was talking about is 7-foot-2 Artis Gilmore, who scored 29 points and grabbed 21 rebounds to lead the Dolphins over a charged-up St. Bonaventure club that played without injured All-American Bob Lanier.

John Vallely, Sidney Wicks and Henry Bibby led second-ranked UCLA with 23, 22 and 19 points, respectively. But the scoring star of the game was the Amazin' Aggies Jimmy Collins, who pumped in 28 points, most with his deadly jumper.

Wooden said he was pleased with UCLA's over-all performance but c'our turnovers displeased me. We made some bad mistakes on defense, but overall we played pretty well on defense."

Coach Lou Hanson of New Mexico State said fourth-ranked Jacksonville will have to play an outstanding game to beat second-ranked UCLA even with Gilmore, 7-foot Pembroke Burrows III and 6-foot-10 Rod McIntyre.

"This UCLA team is well balanced and we have faced them three years in a row now," said Hanson. "And I think this team (UCLA) may be the equal if not better than the past."

UCLA knocked New Mexico State out of the Western quarter-finals in 1968 and 1969.

Williams said Jacksonville played very poorly against St. Bonaventure and "we all feel badly that we didn't play a better ball game."

"We are in the finals, though," he said, "and that's what counts. As long as we win by one point, I'm happy."

Coach Larry Weise said the Bonnies "played their hearts out."

"I'm very proud of them," he said. "Jacksonville is big and strong and their guards handle the ball very well and the team as a unit shoots well."

Elsewhere, Philadelphia set an NHL record with its 24th tie of the season, a 2-2 deadlock against New York. It was the sixth straight time this season that the two teams had played to a standoff—the first time in NHL history that two teams had completed a season's work against each other without a single game ending in a decision.

St. Louis tripped Pittsburgh 3-1 and Montreal whipped Los Angeles 6-1 in other action.

A pair of early penalties put Boston in a manpower hole quickly against the Hawks but Sanderson, one of the NHL's premier penalty killers, scored a short-handed goal to get the Bruins off winging.

It was the 11th short-handed goal scored by the Bruins this season and third for Sanderson.

Later, Johnny Bucyk scored his 26th and 29th goals of the year to give the Bruins some insurance. Goalie Ed Johnston was brilliant, kicking out 36 shots as the Bruins extended their lead over Chicago to three points. Both teams have eight games to play.

New York moved into a third place tie with the Detroit, four points off the Bruins' pace. But the Red Wings have played two fewer games than the Rangers.

Orland Kurtenbach's third period goal earned the deadlock for New York, ninth tie in the last 10 meetings between the Rangers and Flyers over the past two seasons.

UCLA Seeks 6th Title in 7 Years

By TOM SEPPY
Associated Press Sports Writer
COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) — Defending champion UCLA, seeking an unprecedented fourth consecutive title and sixth in seven years, will match its speed and balance Saturday against the height of tourney newcomer Jacksonville University in the finals of the NCAA basketball championship.

"They have such great balance," said Jacksonville Coach Joe Williams after UCLA demolished New Mexico State 93-77 in the semifinals Thursday night. "There isn't any one on their ball club that is weak, no one you can really play off of."

"We're going to try to make some kind of effort to get them out of their pattern," he said. "We can't make them play their game."

UCLA Coach John Wooden, not over-enthusiased with his club's offensive game against the amazin' Aggies, also had lots of praise for Jacksonville which squeezed past outmanned and foul-plagued St. Bonaventure 91-83 in the other semifinal.

Volinn set March 30 for considering the petition, in which the owners of the Pilots, Pacific Northwest Sports Inc., said it "is unable to meet its debts" and "is without funds to finance the operations of the baseball club in Seattle in 1970."

Regardless of the bankruptcy court action, William Dwyer, special assistant state attorney general in charge of the $82 million state-city suit, said his efforts to obtain a injunction would continue.

The club is solvent, the petition said and "intends to continue the operation of the baseball team to the extent its finances permit, if the sale to the Milwaukee Brewers is not consummated."

Sikes had nines of 35-34 Thursday for a three-under-par 69. He is tied for third with several other players. Ron Cerrudo and Don January shared the first round lead with 68s.

Hearing Due on Moving the Pilots

SEATTLE (AP) — The money-plagued plight of the Seattle Pilots continues to bounce from court to court, with a hearing due in King County Superior Court today on moves to switch the American League team.

The action came less than 24 hours after a petition was filed in U.S. District Court asking that the franchise be sold to Milwaukee for $10.8 million under the Bankruptcy Act.

Today's hearing at 9:30 a.m. was held so the league and team owners could give reasons why temporary injunctions shouldn't be issued in two suits filed to prevent a franchise switch.

Washington State and Seattle joined in an $82 million suit, and Alfred J. Schweppe, Seattle lawyer, filed another. In both, temporary restraining orders were obtained barring the league and its 12 owners from moving the team.

Expectations today were that Superior Court would be asked by the league and the Bank of California, which is an intervenor in the case, to delay action until after a March 24 hearing before Sidney Volinn, federal referee in bankruptcy.

When the petition was filed Thursday asking that the Pilots be sold to Milwaukee, Volinn set that date for the state, the city and Schweppe to give their reasons why a court injunction barring them from interfering with the sale of the franchise shouldn't be issued.

Volinn set March 30 for considering the petition, in which the owners of the Pilots, Pacific Northwest Sports Inc., said it "is unable to meet its debts" and "is without funds to finance the operations of the baseball club in Seattle in 1970."

Regardless of the bankruptcy court action, William Dwyer, special assistant state attorney general in charge of the $82 million state-city suit, said his efforts to obtain a injunction would continue.

The club is solvent, the petition said and "intends to continue the operation of the baseball team to the extent its finances permit, if the sale to the Milwaukee Brewers is not consummated."

Antidraft
Protests
Sweep U.S.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Several hundred demonstrators have been arrested in anti-draft protests ranging from passing out flowers to lie-ins at draft board entrances which highlighted a week-long campaign in cities and towns across the nation.

Representative Fletcher Thompson of Georgia believes that all newsmen who are admitted to the congressional galleries should file financial disclosures. His reasoning is that the public should know if writers have any personal involvement in legislation before Congress.

The only financial involvement most members of the working press have is with bill collectors. A public comparison between the holdings of newsmen and congressmen probably would make the journalist look like near paupers.

Actually, Mr. Thompson might not have such a bad idea. The comparison could make the congressmen feel so bad that they would start a special welfare fund for reporters. Perhaps the real aim of the Georgia representative is to give his friends in the press gallery a hand. We felt sure that if newsmen are forced to make reports on their financial dealings, the sums involved would be so lean that Mr. Thompson would be the first to pass the hat. And if his congressional colleagues have a heart, they all would contribute generously.—Greenville, (S.C.) News.

Not So Fast, There
The chairman of the South African Antimiskirt League had been prophesying for some time that his country would suffer grievous retribution if the girls did not lengthen their skirts. He was not talking about eyestrain, either, but was predicting that the retribution for the wearing of miniskirts would strike in a terrible drought.

Well, the long and short of it is that the drought never did show, although quite a lot of South African legdids. However, months later there was a serious earthquake in western Cape Province and apparently the antimiskirt prophet decided that he could make do with this calamity.

He immediately issued a statement, Associated Press reports, which blamed the miniskirt as the direct cause of the earthquake and called for a day of atonement. This will simply not do. It is difficult to be sure of the theology of the situation, but this is a clear case of unscriptural conduct.

The antimiskirt man called his shot when he predicted a rain shortage as a result of the skirt shortage. It would have been an impressive and persuasive feat if he had seen it as he called it. But the drought was a fizzle and fans of prophecy will not accept his transparent attempt to hitch onto the nearest available disturbance as a substitute.

The fact is that this was an earthquake, not the predicted drought. And nearly everybody knows that while droughts are caused by miniskirts, earthquakes are due to somebody having been a spoilsport.—Dallas (Tex.) Morning News

Pastor Enjoined
by Chancellor

LITTLE ROCK, AP — Chancellor Murray O. Reed temporarily enjoined the Rev. L. Jeffries Thursday from continuing to serve as pastor of Steele Memorial Baptist Church of Little Rock.

Five of the six members of the church's Board of Trustees sued the Rev. Mr. Jeffries last week, alleging that the church members had voted Feb. 27 to declare the pulpit vacant, but that the Rev. Mr. Jeffries had continued to act as pastor.

Catlett's term expired March 1, but he is continuing to serve in lieu of an appointment. Catlett is a former state chairman of the Democratic party.

School Aid Measure
Goes Far Beyond What
Nixon Recommended

By GREGG HERRINGTON

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional conferees, after watering down Southern efforts to slow school desegregation, have come to terms on a $3-billion education aid bill that goes far beyond President Nixon's recommendations.

In a late session Thursday night the House-Senate negotiators approved the bill that also extends major educational programs to 1973. The measure, still must be approved by both houses and signed by President Nixon.

The bill carries over the Elementary and Secondary Education Act, largest of all federal aid to education programs, and such others as special aid to poor and impacted area districts.

The conferees biggest fight was over an amendment sponsored by Sen. John C. Stennis, D-Miss., which will require federal school desegregation policies be applied uniformly in all sections of the nation regardless of the cause of the segregation.

The Mississippi Democrat's amendment was criticized by many civil rights advocates as designed to take the spotlight off the South and, in effect, diminish government desegregation efforts.

The conferees added a provision to the Stennis section that the government, in distributing its aid, shall apply one policy to official state government segregation throughout the country and another policy where unofficial segregation resulted from neighborhood housing patterns.

Under Stennis' amendment as originally envisioned, one set of guidelines would have applied in both cases throughout the nation.

Fire Damages
Local Mobile Homes Plant

Young American Homes, a division of Mid-American Housing Inc., was considerably but not extensively damaged by fire about midnight last night. Origin of the blaze could not be determined. The plant is located just beyond Hope city limits on Highway 29 north.

Fire Chief James Cobb said the damage was confined to the southwest corner of the building. There was considerable loss of material and some of the steel beams in the building were warped.

Only yesterday the firm had announced it was changing its name from Homestead Industries to Young American Homes. Production will not be seriously affected.

He Didn't Bridge the Generation Gap But Broke Sound Barrier

By JOY STILLEY

NEW YORK (AP) — As a member of the over 30 set, I may not have bridged the generation gap, but I have at least broken the sound barrier.

Thanks to a careful study of the lexicon of youth, I am now able to converse intelligibly, if not intelligently, with my youngsters.

First step in the process of learning their language was unlearning my own. My outdated ideas on word meanings had to go, and now I tell it like it wasn't when I was their age.

Thus I have discarded the old-fashioned notion that a bag is something to carry groceries, home in. Now your bag is just doing your thing.

Cool no longer serves merely as an adjective, adverb and verb. It has taken on added duty as a noun, and keeping your cool is very much "in" these days.

Today's bread comes from a banker instead of a baker. Split has nothing to do with bananas — it's the modern way of indicating you're leaving for where the action is.

Hip is still a pant solely to a doctor and, speaking of pants, they've come a long way, baby, since they were only the place of the fem. estate party.

Sen. Claiborne Pell, D-R.I., head man of the Senate conferees, predicted Stennis would fight the compromise when the bill goes back to the Senate floor "because he made it clear to me he would oppose any change in his amendment."

Rep. Carl D. Perkins, D-Ky., head of the House delegation, said he was certain the House would approve the measure.

The compromise $3 billion, three-year bill compares with a $35 billion four-year bill passed by the Senate last month and a $12.7 billion two-year measure cleared by the House last April and favored by the White House.

The conferees added a provision, however, that the bill be automatically extended for a fourth year if Congress has not acted within three years to continue the programs.

Postal Strike Spreads to the Midwest

By BOB MONROE

Associated Press Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The spreading postal strike leapt today into the Midwest today as the court-defying walkout entered its third day with increasingly serious disruptions to the business and financial community.

Some Wall Street brokers feared a continued strike could shut down the entire securities industry by Monday. The garment industry faced the loss of Easter business because rush orders lay buried in the post office.

In Washington, congressional leaders said they would not be pressured into a pay raise sought by strikers while administration action focused on friendly persuasion and cooperation with union leaders trying to end the strike.

More than 17 million persons were without mail delivery Thursday and the number was growing as more branches of the AFL-CIO National Letter Carriers Union responded to the strike begun in New York.

Decisions Thursday night to go out in East Lansing, Mich., Akron, Ohio and St. Paul, Minn., jumped the strike inland from the populous Eastern seaboard states where postmen in Newark, N.J., Hartford, Conn., and Buffalo, N.Y., had decided earlier to join the walkout.

There were reports that the strike might spread to more of the nation's major cities despite pleas from the letter carrier's national president, James H. Rademacher, that the more than 60,000 already idle return to work.

The strike in defiance of federal court back-to-work orders already had paralyzed mail service in the New York City metropolitan area and northern New Jersey, affected Upstate New York and was spreading among major cities of Connecticut.

There appeared no end before Saturday when the New York letter carriers who began the walkout are to vote on ending the strike—the first of its magnitude in the 161-year history of the U.S. Post Office Department.

Living Cost
Continues to Spiral

WASHINGTON (AP) — Living costs continued rising in February at the swiftest pace in 20 years with big hikes for food, clothing and home mortgage interest making up most of the month's increase, the government said today.

The Labor Department's Consumer Price Index rose five-tenths of one per cent for the month to 132.5, meaning it costs $13.25 for every $10 worth of living costs in the 1957-59 base period.

"Larger than seasonal increases in food and apparel prices and advances in charges for consumer services, particularly home mortgages, accounted for most of the rise," said the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

The February rise in living costs brought them to a point 6.3 per cent above a year ago, reducing the value of the 1957-59 dollar from 80.3 cents to 75.5 cents.

In February, food prices rose six-tenths of one per cent and were 7.9 per cent above a year earlier. Housing costs were up eight-tenths of one per cent for the month and 7.2 per cent for the year. Clothing rose five-tenths of one per cent in February and was 4.9 per cent above a year earlier.

Recreation costs were up one-tenth of one per cent for the month and 3.7 per cent for the year.

The only major price category to remain unchanged in February was transportation, which was still 4.3 per cent above a year earlier.

U.S. Officials Hope
Cambodia Will Halt
Arms Flow to Enemy

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. military officials are hopeful the new regime in Cambodia will shut off a major channel of war material for the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong through the port of Sihanoukville.

Such a move would be a major plus for the United States and South Vietnam as a result of the overthrow of neutralist Prince Norodom Sihanouk, the officials indicated.

U.S. officials also are hopeful the Cambodians will permit U.S. and South Vietnamese troops to cross the border and smash sanctuaries from which the enemy has launched attacks into South Vietnam for years.

South Vietnam's Ambassador Bul Diem, meanwhile, said use of Cambodian sanctuaries by the enemy is one reason why the numerically inferior North Vietnamese and Viet Cong forces in the South have been able to hold out so long.

And perhaps to reinforce what American diplomats feel is a pro-western attitude of the new Cambodian government, the

18 Persons
Perish in Seattle Fire

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — Fire officials said at least 18 persons died and an undetermined number were injured early today when fire swept the five-story Clark Hotel near the downtown business district.

The King County medical examiner's office said the fire might go higher. An estimated 35 to 40 persons were in the hotel, one guest said.

Seattle Police Sgt. Jack Lawson, who witnessed the blaze, said some hotel residents leaped from windows to escape flames.

Eugene Fingerson, 42, a hotel guest said he sat on a fourth-floor window ledge for about 15 minutes until firemen put a ladder up to him.

"I heard a siren," said Fingerson, "and then I smelled smoke. I opened the door, but the fire came into the room, and I had to close it again."

"The hall was full of fire and smoke, I couldn't get out that way."

He said many of the residents were elderly persons.

"I know one man jumped from the second floor. He was pretty banged up, but he was OK." He estimated the hotel housed 35-40 persons.

Fingerson said he was awakened about 2:30 a.m. Firemen reported the fire under control 3:24 a.m.

Cambodia
Warns Prince
to Stay Away

By T. JEFF WILLIAMS

Associated Press Writer

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — The Cambodian government warned today that it is prepared to use force if Prince Norodom Sihanouk tries to return to power.

"Our army has the right to turn to arms and actions in all forms" if the deposed chief of state "attempts to use the legal authority which he no longer has," said a communist broadcast by Radio Phnom Penh.

The government radio also announced a declaration of a "state of danger" and suspension of all constitutional rights for six months, but Phnom Penh remained quiet. Radio Phnom Penh carried reports from half a dozen provinces saying the overthrow of Sihanouk had won the support of students, the clergy and the population in general.

Dangerous times were seen ahead as the Cambodians waited nervously for their former ruler's next move. Two possible courses of action were foreseen: — He can accede gracefully and return to France with his wife, Princess Monique.

— He can return to Cambodia and try to rally support for his cause.

It was considered doubtful that Hanoi and Peking would do nothing while the men who ousted Sihanouk—Gen. Lon Nol, the premier, and deputy premier Sirik Matak—moved Cambodia to the right.

Sihanouk's overthrow was carried out so swiftly and smoothly that it took both Western and Communist diplomats by surprise.

Both the government removed two men close to the 47-year-old prince, the chief of the Phnom Penh police and the minister for ground defense, who is Sihanouk's brother-in-law. Then upwards of 300 troops were concentrated around the National Assembly, backed by five tanks. More troops took position near the telephone and telegraph office and around the office of Radio Phnom Penh.

Then came the announcement that the National Assembly had unanimously withdrawn its confidence from Sihanouk and named the assembly president, Cheng Hong, acting chief of state.

Deputy Premier Matak is considered the strong man now. He also is a brother-in-law of Sihanouk, the half-brother of his wife, but is considered far to the right of the prince.

The Yugoslav news agency Tanjug reported from Peking that Sihanouk spent his second day in the Chinese capital conferring with members of the Cambodian embassy. It said nothing was known about his plans but there were indications from the embassy that all members of its staff "agree with the prince."

The report said Peking papers front-paged reports of Sihanouk's talks with Premier Chou En-lai and continued to refer to him as the Cambodian chief of state. They made no mention of his ouster.

Other governments took the attitude that Sihanouk's ouster did not require them to take a stand because it did not affect the formal basis of their relations with the Cambodian government.

The U.S. State Department said American recognition continues unchanged and "the question of recognition does not arise." Japanese Foreign Minister Kishi Ichiro said the change in Phnom Penh was a "political change," not a coup, and therefore no change in relations was involved.

Judgment Against
Arkla Affirmed

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP)

A Union County Circuit Court

Jury Thursday handed down a $47,000 judgment against the Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co.

The judgment was in favor of Aubra and Wanda Anthony of El Dorado, whose home blew up and burned March 19, 1969. The Anthonys had sued the gas company for $90,000.
